

YRCAS Engages Odgers Berndtson to Help Search for New CEO

The Board of Directors for York Region Children's Aid Society has engaged the services of executive search firm Odgers Berndtson to ensure a comprehensive national and professional search is undertaken to identify the next Chief Executive Officer of York Region Children's Aid Society. With the assistance of Odgers Berndtson, the search process will begin immediately, with an outreach to engage stakeholders, and a review of the skills, experience, and competencies required of the CEO, considering the outcomes of the Ministry review and the future direction of York Region Children's Aid Society.